

Emergency room (ER) and evacuation unit (EU).

Norwegian Deployable Hospital

The Norwegian Deployable Hospital will provide Level II medical support to all MINURCAT personnel.

The main purpose of a Level 2 hospital is to perform Damage Control Surgery, and to stabilize the patient for further evacuation. The hospital has emergency room, operating theatres, post operative unit, intensive care unit, laboratory, pharmacy, x-ray department, dental unit, outpatient unit and medium dependency wards.

The hospital is self sustained in regards of logistical support, i.e. kitchen, water purification, oxygen production, maintenance workshop, transport etc.

- 30 Medium dependency beds
- 2 Ambulances
- 2 Intensive care beds
- 2 Post operative beds
- 2 Operating theatres
- 1 C-arm and digital X-rays

Intensive care unit (ICU).

Norwegian Deployable Hospital

Medical care for MINURCAT

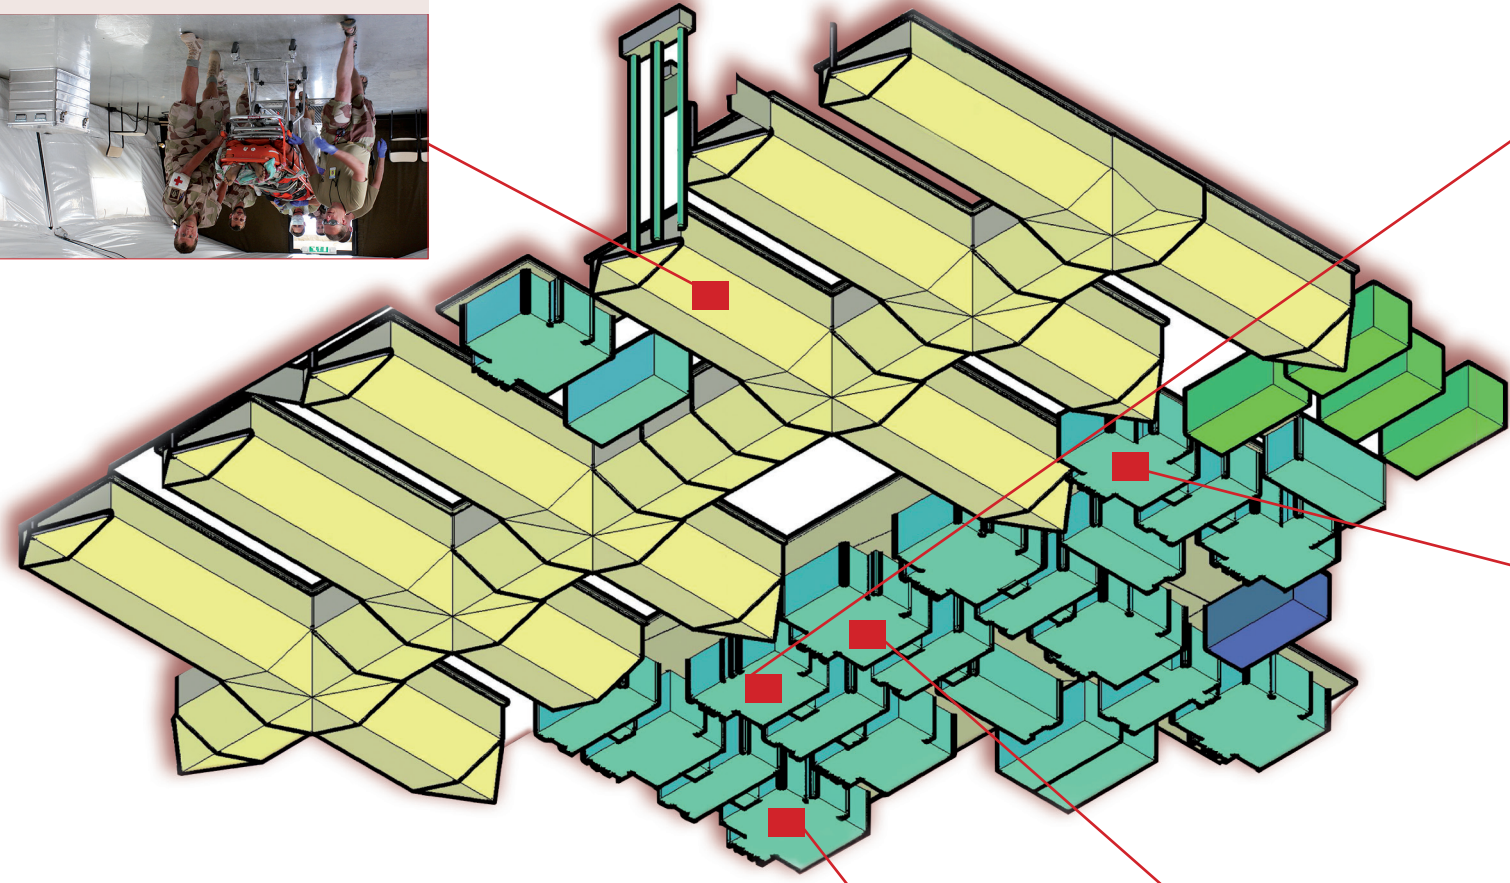

Norwegian Deployable Hospital

N

D

H

- The core capabilities of the hospital are housed in 29 containers.
- The hospital's footprint is more than 2000 m².
- The hospital's berthing comes from Norway and Serbia.
- All in all, the Norwegian and Serbian contingents consist of 151 personnel.

Emergency room (ER)

X-ray

Operation theatre (OT)

Laboratory (LAB)

Central sterile services department (CSSD)